Dear Sir/Madam

Prosecution of Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin and his agents Lugavoi and Kovtun

With respect to your letter of 29 March, to which I replied on 11 April 2016, I still await an appropriate response from you, for the basic issue still remains –

1. the Alexander Litvinenko murder (the official documentation of which I supplied directly to your office) was carried out on the territory of a state signatory to the Rome Statute; and,
2. the evidence presented at the judicial enquiry by the London Metropolitan Police was that the scientific evidence implicating the two Russian murder suspects (Andrei Lugovoi and Dmitry Kovtun) was “incontrovertible”; and, in addition,
3. the British court’s requested extradition of Lugavoi was then directly blocked personally by Russian President Vladimir Putin and who also awarded the primary suspect Lugavoi a medal.

Inasmuch as the scientific evidence implicating these two Russian FSB officers as murder suspects (Andrei Lugovoi and Dmitri Kovtun) was declared “incontrovertible” in July 2015, in the UK judicial enquiry into the assassination of Alexander Litvinenko, and their crime was committed on the territory of a state that is a signatory to the Rome Statute which founded the International Criminal Court (ICC), and by two nationals of a signatory state, the ICC has a direct obligation as court-of-last-resort to pursue the prosecution of these named FSB officers, and of their protector President Vladimir Putin whose instructions they appear to have carried out.

The personal details of Putin’s agents responsible:

- Andrei Konstantinovich Lugovoi: passport 0608109; of Soloviniya Proezcl, 16-1-247, Moscow, Russia, 117593;
- Dmitri Vadimovich Kovtun: passport 9632078; of Apartment no. 150, Golubinskay Street, Moscow, Russia, 117463.

With respect,
